Attention Democrats

A very important election approaches and so little has been said and done, we are afraid the Democrats will not realize the importance of going to the polls on Tuesday, November 7th, to vote. Senator Swanson is being opposed by a negro named Lewis and a Republican by the name of McGovack and Congressman Tucker is being opposed by a Republican by the name of John Martin. Democrats are urged to get out a full party vote on the 7th of November. You will be called upon to vote on the question of calling another Constitutional Convention. This useless expense of more than half million dollars of the people's tax money should be avoided, so we urge every Democrat to vote against calling this convention. This convention scheme is not in the interest of the counties; it is predicted that the cities will ask that the taxes be so segregated as to relelve the cities from helping to maintain our schools and roads. The cities now claim to pay more than half of the said taxes. They are not entitled to this relief and no countyman who has his county's interest in mind will vote for the Constitutional convention. Vote against the convention. Vote for Swanson and Tucker Democratic nominees.

Tobacco Growers To Go The Limit

The legal victory of the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association won at Nashville, N. C., and confirmed by the announcement of Judge Frank Daniels at Plymouth, that its contracts with members are binding and enforceable by injunction was followed up at once by the filing of further suits by the Association against fourteen members in eight counties asking damages at the rate of five cents a pound for all tobacco sold in violation of the contract plus attorneys' fees.

Six growers are ordered to appear October 30th it the Wake County Court House at Raleigh, the headquarters town of the Association, to show cause why the restraining order against them should not be made permanent. $6,800 involved.

That the Association will go the limit in protecting the interests of its loyal members by suits against contract breakers is evidenced from the fact that all the suits now on file are on printed forms and apply to members both in the old belt and Eastern North Carolina.

Deliveries to the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association doubled in Eastern North Carolina last week and continued heavy throughout Virginia and the old belt.

The second cash payment by the Association to all members in South Carolina will be made next week, and, according to Mr. Sands, the Association could go out of business today and make every member who has delivered tobacco two more payments, each as large as the first.

No tobacco of the Association has been sold as low as the loan value placed upon it by the bankers and some grades have been sold for nine times the amount of the first cash advance to member growers.

"There was never a company formed with a business as big as yours which has run as smoothly and successfully as your association", the manager of the big cooperative told its members in Eastern Carolina.

Declaration of War

On the vermin foes of useful wild life and poultry.

As director of the Pest Extermination crusade in Va., I announce the following prizes to be awarded to those killing the most hawks, owls and crows from Nov. 1st 1922, to June 1st 1923. Four crows count as one hawk, owls same as hawks, screech owls and sparrow hawks not counted on prizes. $100 dollars goes to the best pest killer, $65 to next, then $50, next 40, then $35, next $30, then two $25 each, two more $20 each next three $15 each, three $10 each, and three $5 each. Nineteen prizes amounting to $500 will be awarded in the order named. Other prizes are expected to be announced later.

Scalps must be turned into the circuit court clerk in person (never mail them) by those who will make oath that the pests were killed by them individually.

Any attempt to combine the kills of two or more will bar from all prizes. Salt the scalpes well to prevent putrefaction.

The bounty of 50c each on hawks and owls is paid in every county in Va., and 15c each at certain seasons on crows.

You can win a big prize if you will. You get the bounty on all you kill, but best of all you will be saving innocent and useful wild life and poultry For further particulars address Rev. Noel J. Allen, care of Department of Game & Inland Fisheries, Richmond, Va.

Buckingham

8 boys passed through here about 8 o'clock Saturday night in a car and thinking they were on the Farmville road which they had come over in the day time they were running at a high rate of speed and making a short turn in the road they struck the iron railing of a bridge and all 8 boys were hurled over an embankment in the car which was badly broken up and the boys more or less bruised and hurt and one was rendered unconscious and was attended by Dr. Tucker. These boys hail from Hampden Sidney and had been over to Fork Union to a ball game on Saturday. They hired two cars here and went back to college Sunday morning.

A number of letters come by each mail in reply to a ad in a daily paper for teachers and a great majority of these applicants have no certificates, others when offered rural one room schools want to teach in the high schools.

Buckingham county scuool board met at the court house on Monday and was in session most of the day. Mr. Luther P. Gilliam, chairman of the school board was requested to go to Richmond to attend to some school business. Mrs. Ellis the trustee in Maysville district was granted leave to move the Fossie school house for use by the colored people. Attention of the board was called to the fact that colored children going to and from the temporary quarters of the school have to pass by the white school have to pass by the white school; a condition if allowed to continue might cause trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bondurant motored to Farmville to attend the fair Thursday.

Mr. J. P. Andrews had a serious case of tonsilitis last week.

Mr. Joe Guill made two trips to Lynchburg last week in his car taking tobacco each time and he got as high as $24 for some tobacco. He is not a member of the Association I am told.

I have been granted a leave of absence from Buckingham for a month and after the 6th of November superintendent John A. Twyman has kindly promised to attend to any school matters for me in James River district. I hope to entertain the readers of this paper with what I see and hear on my trip as well as get the news supplied from here.

One by one the influential men of the State are falling into line on the bond issue question and it looks now as if Governor Trinkle will call an extra session of the Legislature.

Just to read Mr. Sunday's sermons one would not think he could draw and hold the immense crowds that hear him each day, he must be intensely magnetic. People go for miles to hear him who seldom go to the churches at home and give dollars to the mighty sums collected in Lynchburg where only nickles and dimes go to the home churches.

Some corn has changed hands at $4 a barrell, corn will be slow sale for most people have made good crops of it The prices of meat of all kind is low as compared with what it was soon after the war. It is wonderful why farmers should force their cattle on the market rather than feed them when there is more food and corn on the farms than I ever saw and there are not many cattle in the country either. A veal calf sells now for as much as the cow and one finds ready sale while the other is a drag.

The Buckingham county and school fair is to be held here November 2ad and 3rd. The same people make a study of winning prizes at fairs and they get premiums every year for a few stalks of corn raised on the back yard or in the cow pen while people who raise extra fine crops do not take the time and trouble to get their products in shape to compete

The Dillwyn tobacco market is to open on Nov. 7th.

Mr. Crouch intends shipping a car load of cattle to Richmond this week.

Mr. and Mrs James Young are expected to visit friends in Buckingham about Nov. 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins Ellis will leave their country home about Nov. 5th and go to Bermingham, Ala., where they spend their winters.

Woodland

Miss Selene Woodson has returned from an extended visit to Blue Ridge, N. C, and her sister, Mrs. Berkley Nash in Lynchburg.

Master Paul Woodson is slowly improving from a small cut received on his leg while cutting corn, but has turned out to be more serious than it seemed and Dr. Ould has been attending him for two weeks.

Mr. Glover Marshall has been suffering from a bruised foot and leg received while hauling billets when the colored boys run the truck back on him catching him between the truck and pile of billets.

On Oct. 13th, the patrons of Woodland met and organized a Community League and the following officers were elected: Miss Emma Haar president, Mrs. W. W. Woodson vice president, Mrs. E. G. Cheatham secretary-treasurer. After discussing the plans for future work of the organization, the meeting adjourned to meet on Friday Nov. 3rd, at 3:30 at Woodland school. The school has also organized a Literary Society with the following officers: Clyde Woodson, president; Odell Puckett, vice president, Virginia Woodson secretary, hurah! for Woodland, we are expecting great things from you.

On Oct. 15th Miss Byrde Lee Hayes and Wesley Driskill motored to Lynchburg and were united in marriage, best wishes.
